

Scope of Use

- For newspapers, one article shall be counted as a single unit, regardless of length.
- Up to 30 paper copies, or shared access by up to 40 authorized internal users for digital reproductions.
- For newspapers, digital copies must be deleted within two (2) months after reproduction. (This requirement does not apply to paper copies.)
- Within an organization, if each department has a different purpose of reproduction, the departments shall be treated as independent units and may each reproduce within the limits above.

The Flow of Japanese Repertoire Rights Management at JRRC

- (1) JRRC receives mandates from rightsholders to manage reproduction rights.
- (2) JRRC concludes reproduction license agreements with users and collects royalties.
- (3) JRRC distributes collected royalties to the rightsholders through their respective member organization.

